

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Gets New Organ; Recital Slated

Installation of a new organ 1432 Engracia Ave., and a recital and dedication service has been completed this week at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, been scheduled next Sunday for the parish.

The new organ, an anonymous gift to the church by a member of the parish, replaces one moved into the sanctuary from a Torrance theater when the talking pictures ended its life there. Dr. William Connell, organist for St. Timothy's Church in Los Angeles, will be featured in the recital from 4:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday afternoon, according to the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's.

Dedication of the organ will follow during the 5 p.m. "Carols by Candlelight" service in the church. Sunday evening's service, the fourth in a series of Advent services, will conclude the pre-Christmas vesper worship. The Rev. Fr. Percy will speak on "The Joy of Believing," the fourth in a series of talks on the general theme, "The Road to Bethlehem Today." Other Sunday services include Holy Communion at 7:30 a.m., and "The Story of Christmas" in Scripture and song at 9:15 and 11 a.m.

The Road to BETHLEHEM TODAY

Fourth in a series of Advent services featuring Christmas music and a discussion on the parallels of Christ's day and ours.

CHRISTMAS STORY... Part of the scenes used to depict the Christmas story at the South Bay Church of God for the sixth year is shown here. The pageant, in which 28 members of the congregation dramatize the impressive Nativity story, will be given nightly at 7 and 8 beginning tomorrow and concluding Dec. 23. Sunday evening a performance will be given at 7 followed by a Christmas cantata.

South Bay Church of God Depicts Nativity Story for Sixth Year

The beautiful story of Christ's birth will be presented for the sixth consecutive year by the South Bay Church of God, 17681 Yukon Ave. Twenty-eight members of the congregation will dramatize the impressive Nativity Story. Live animals, authentic costuming, and effective lighting and staging add color to the vivid portrayal.

The children will enjoy, especially, the opening scene; a father reading "The Night Before Christmas" to his little daughter. Carolers outside the window asks, "What is the true story of Christmas?" The father then lays down the story book and begins reading the story of the birth of Christ from the Bible.

Christ Child. The closing scene takes us back into the home as the father and child are awed by the revelation they have just experienced. Carolers in 1890 costumes sing appropriate Christmas Carols between the scenes of this 25 minute presentation.

PERFORMANCES will be at 7 and 8 each evening Dec. 16 through Dec. 23, with the exception of Sunday, when there will be a 7 o'clock performance followed by the Christmas Cantata "Love Transcending" by John W. Peterson at 8 p.m.

It is the belief of Rev. Clifford Tierney and the congregation that every person should have the opportunity of experiencing the real Spirit of Christmas. Therefore, he invites each of you to be their guests as they strive to keep "Christ in Christmas," a church official said.

Central Church Choir to Give Special Music

The Church Choir of the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church will present special Christmas music in solos and choir anthems, combined with the reading of appropriate Scriptures at the 11 a.m. service next Sunday.

Lesson-Sermon Topic Told for Next Sunday

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" This challenging question will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science church services Sunday. These affirmations of John are the Golden Text, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God... All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made."

Children Set To Portray Yule Story

A symbolic portrayal of the Christmas story by the children of the Redondo-Torrance Church of Religious Science will be given at a party for the entire church family and friends this Sunday at 6:30 p.m. in the Redondo Beach Masonic dining hall.

Baptists Will Hold Annual Yule Program

The Western Avenue Baptist Church at 253rd and Western Ave., will hold their annual Christmas Carol Candlelight Musical, next Sunday, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p.m., it was announced by Rev. Wayne Kyllingstad, Minister of Education. Christmas carols of other countries will be presented by the choir, women's chorus and soloists. The choir and congregation will combine in singing traditional carols.

Sermon Topic For Seaside Church Given

"The Inn Keeper; In the Wrong Orbit" will be the sermon topic on Dec. 17, at Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean Ave. Worship service starts at 10 a.m. Child care is provided. A special evening of fellowship for all church and church school families has been planned Sunday, Dec. 18, under the direction of the Board of Christian Education with Mrs. Gerald Bransford, chairman, as Rhynesberger. The evening

Lutheran Church Observes Triple Anniversaries

Triple anniversary observances were conducted recently by members of Immanuel Lutheran Church, who celebrated the 35th anniversary of the founding of the church, the fifth year of occupancy of the present church and the tenth year of ministry in the church by the Rev. A.L.T. Schuetz.

In behalf of the congregation, Elders Phil Baxter, Herb Schultz and W. A. Kamrath presented the Rev. and Mrs. Schuetz a film projector and a cash gift. A 35mm camera was presented to the pastor in June by members of the children's confirmation class.

DURING THE 10-year period in which the Rev. Schuetz has served the congregation, baptized membership has increased from 127 to 740. The pastor has performed 308 baptisms, has confirmed 68 children and received 112 adults into membership through baptism or confirmation.

INITIAL services were conducted in the South Bay area by the Missouri Synod Lutheran Church in the 1890's by the Rev. F. C. Meyer, a former missionary to New Zealand. Many of his descendants remain as active members of the congregation today. Later the Rev. W. F. Troeger, who recently resigned as pastor of Pilgrim Lutheran Church, Santa Monica, following 45 years in the ministry there, filled the pulpit of the mission station.

Ten years ago the congregation built a chapel at the corner of Beryl and Elena. Major growth of the congregation, however, has been made in the past five years, since the dedication of the present house of worship.

Annual Music Of Christmas Program Slated

The annual Christmas music program of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church will be presented Sunday at 7:30 p.m. This presentation of a full hour by the church choir will be the first time when all the choirs will be utilized in presenting the Christmas music. It will be under the direction of Edwin T. Isbell, minister of music and education.

Baptists to Give Cantata

"Night of Miracles," a Christmas Cantata, will be presented by the choir of the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Sunday evening at 7 p.m. Soloists for the performance will be: Joy Ciniero, Martha Lacy, and Dolores Prentiss; soprano; Barbara Kootz, alto; Simon Melendez and Bob Bareford, tenors; L. J. Fires and Joe Morris, basses. Kay Bareford will direct the choir and Elsie Deane Morris and Ruth Mitchell will accompany at the pianos. Paul MacAllister will narrate the program.
